

Position description

Role: Community Organiser

Reports to: Campaigns Director

Position: 1 FTE, option of 0.8 FTE if preferred

Review: Annually in June (however please note a Review of your performance does not guarantee an increase to your remuneration)

Travel: Some interstate travel is required

Position purpose

From Tasmania to Queensland and right across to Western Australia, Farmers for Climate Action is mobilising farmers to push for climate solutions. This role is designed to grow our farmer networks, and lead the roll out of our ambitious organising strategy across the country.

Key relationships and reporting structures

The role oversees our community outreach work and volunteer regional point people, and reports to the Campaigns Manager. This role also works closely across the FCA team, in particular with the Deputy Director.

Position scope

This role is responsible for expanding Farmers for Climate Action's farmer networks and helping to deliver our theory of change - organising farmers and graziers on-farm and advocating together to influence the sector and the government to implement climate policies that reduce pollution and benefit rural communities.

Key accountabilities

Rolling out our organising strategy across the country

- Appointing and coordinating regional point people in strategically chosen locations to support grassroots activity within communities.

Growing our farmer numbers

- Developing and delivering organising initiatives to further support the rapid growth of our farmer networks, and engagement of farmers already within our network
- Overseeing day-to-day farmer outreach, alongside the Community Outreach Officer

Growing farmer skills and profiles

- Overseeing the planning and facilitation of educational workshops, webinars etc
- Supporting the development of farmer case studies for our website, media etc

Contributing to organisational strategy

- Delivering farmer driven insights to the Campaign Director and other key FCA personnel to help inform and drive campaign and engagement strategies
